

*“Do Unto Others” Part 2 –
Romans 14:13-23
Transformed Relationships in
Romans 12-16*

I. CONSIDERATION & MUTUAL PERMISSION
Romans 14:1-12

In matters of personal conviction and preference that are not expressly addressed in Scripture, love, sensitivity, and the best interest of the other are the guiding principles.

II. CONSIDERATION AND MUTUAL EDIFICATION
Romans 14:13-23

A. Principles of Christian Living
Romans 14:13-15

1. Concern for the other’s spiritual condition
(13)
2. Concern for the other’s spiritual _____
(14)
3. Concern for the other’s spiritual _____
(15)

- B. Preserving Personal _____ (16-18)
1. Personal Testimony Is Important (16)
  2. The Kingdom Is Essentially _____ (17)
  3. The _____ of Christ Is at Stake (18)

C. _____ May Be A Good Idea (19-21)

D. Use Your _____ as Your _____ (22-23)
(A conscience that is informed and guided by Scripture)